ABOUT BOULDERS RESORT & SPA

Championship golf, a luxurious spa and exclusive service await our golfers at Boulders Resort and Spa. This high-end resort is on 1,300 acres in the Sonoran Desert foothills. The surrounding terrain and plant life have been left virtually untouched, allowing indigenous flora and fauna to thrive. Upscale lodging with refined southwestern accents includes rooms, suites, studios and villas. All have fireplaces, natural stone showers, flat-screen TVs, Wi-Fi (covered by resort fee), refrigerators, and offer panoramic views of 12-million-year-old boulder formations. The 6 dining options range from a casual bakery to a sophisticated restaurant. There are 2 championship golf courses, 4 outdoor pools, tennis courts and a fitness center plus convenient access to many other top courses.

About The Boulders Club - North Course

Built right into the desert foothills, The Boulders North Course is a fantastic 6,811 yard, par 72 course featuring bent grass. Accurate tee shots will help you access these lush well-protected greens. Amazing boulder formations are prevalent throughout the course, and it is very common to see desert wildlife roaming the terrain. Some of the most majestic views in all of Arizona are at The Boulders Club. The Boulders Club is world renowned as one of the finest golf resorts in the Western United States. Their 36 challenging holes of championship golf designed by Jay Morrish are divided into The North and South Courses.

About The Boulders Club - South Course

Built right into the desert foothills, The Boulders South Course is a breathtaking 6,726 yard, par 71 course featuring bent grass. Bring your short game because precision around the greens will help you navigate these heavily undulated greens. "Boulder Pile" and "Rosie's Rock," two of the resort's most well-known rock formations, are located on The South Course amid the captivating views Black Mountain. The Boulders Club is world renowned as one of the finest golf resorts in the western United States. There 36 challenging holes of championship golf designed by Jay Morrish divided into The North and South Courses. All 36 holes are in the most peaceful setting you will ever find on a golf course.
