

DESTINATION:

Phoenix, Arizona

ABOUT THE ARIZONA BILTMORE

Born a century ago as the grandest hotel of Hollywood's Golden Age, the Arizona Biltmore offers a glamorous history.

On February 23, 1929 the Arizona Biltmore opened in grand fashion. From that day forward, the Arizona Biltmore has been a private retreat for some of the most influential powerhouses of all time.

In March 2020, the property underwent a $150 million reinvention, elevating it to a new standard of service and decorum.

Amenities & Recreation

- Seven sparkling pools including separate spaces for adults only and family fun.
- 6 restaurants and bars.
- Pickleball, tennis, bike rentals and e-bike tours.
- Tierra Luna Spa and Sol Garden, an outdoor oasis with contrast pools, meditation lawns, and views of Piestewa Peak.
- Daily fitness classes, Pickleball, tennis, activities, with nightly special events and entertainment.
- Golf at the Arizona Biltmore Golf Club - Rolling fairways and impeccable sportsmanship. Pristine lakes and lush beauty. The Arizona Biltmore Golf Club courses offer bold challenges and enjoyable play for the most discerning golfer.

Dining Options

Renata's Hearth: Artful crafting of Latin fire in a seductive setting of sheer delight, fine food and fabulously good times.

McArthur's: McArthur's legacy is the storied past of the man that designed this uniquely fascinating and inspiring building to be a beautiful place where people feel equally beautiful.

Adobe Bar & Grille: A historic spot with casual dining and golf course views, serving breakfast, lunch, dinner, and drinks.

The Spire Bar: Considered the best outdoor bar in Phoenix, the Spire Bar stands as the headquarters of the Biltmore's lively social scene. Explore the vast menu of bar bites, including light bites, flatbreads, sandwiches and desserts.

The Wright Bar: For something more intimate, the notoriously cool Wright Bar dazzles from morning to nightcap. The Wright Bar embodies the renegade spirit of Hollywood's Golden Age. Lite bites.

Nearby: Hillstone, Seasons 52, and Gordie's at Wrigley Mansion.

Transportation & Accessibility

Located in the heart of Phoenix, the resort can be less than 20 minutes from Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport, only a short trip from Downtown Phoenix and Old Town Scottsdale – or a million miles from a single care in the world.